

I and my family have been using XM radio since its inception and find it to be of great listening pleasure.

In addition we utilize the weather, news and where applicable traffic.

The local broadcasters have failed, and continue to fail to provide any semblance of balanced and thoughtful insight to radio.

As an XM user, we would appreciate that self interested parties not be allowed to conflict with a private medium that I pay for..

earle masterson
columbus, ohio